

Please do not allow the banking industry to toy with the Indiana no-call list. It has been wonderful to not be interrupted by inane phone calls during dinner or at any other busy time. I would like my peace and quiet to continue!